HUNTERS CELEBRATING THEIR EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Observations Come During Period of Observance.

MANY AT MONONGAHELA

Parade and Speaking Are Features — Brownsville Scene of Gathering

Miners all along the Monongahela Valley, and surrounding territory, were out today and the miners are celebrating the institution of the eight-hour day. Special observances are being held at Brownsville and Monongahela and there are big crowds at both places. The Charleroi Italian Club went to Brownsville to participate in the ceremonies.

At Monongahela a parade carrying a banner was one of the chief features. The program started at 11:15 o'clock with James Pollock as speaker. The speakers and officials will ride in autos and there will be bands of miners in line. Crew bands furnished the music for the occasion.

Speaking took place at the Anton Hotel at 1:30. E. S. McCullough, chairman of the meeting, said he had delivered an address of welcome and an address was made by W. G. Sanders, secretary of the Monongahela Y. M. C. A. This afternoon's soccer game is a feature.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, and Morris Jones, a notable figure in a number of strikes, were invited to the celebration but did not appear.

At Brownsville, the program of events is much the same as usual with a program one of the chief features.

FLORAL TRIBUTES MANY AT FUNERAL OF DROWNED WOMAN

With the elements playing much as they had raged the day that Mrs. L. P. Wilding met her death by drowning in Sharon, her funeral was held Monday afternoon and interment was in the Monongahela cemetery. The services at the home of her brother John Henrich were attended by scores of friends of the young woman. There were many and beautiful floral offerings. Intimate friends of the husband served as pallbearers. They were: William David and Harrison Watts of Charleroi; S. A. Wagner, N. W. Shiflett, W. P. Smith and W. R. Robinson of Monessen.

Banquet for Homann.
A banquet was given Monday evening at the Grand Hotel, Monessen, in honor of Adolph Homann, who has been cashier of one of the Monessen banks. There were about 85 of Mr. Homann's business friends present. He will leave shortly for San Francisco to accept a position with a large insurance company. His successor at Monessen is A. E. Thomas of Fayette City.

To Confirm Local Class

Rt. Rev. Cortland Whitehead to be at Episcopal Church Thursday Night

The Rt. Rev. Cortland Whitehead, bishop of the diocese of Pittsburgh, will visit St. Mary's Episcopal Church Thursday evening of this week to administer the rite of confirmation. The service will begin at 7 o'clock followed by an address by the bishop. Bishop Whithead, who is one of the most distinguished clergymen of western Pennsylvania and stands high in the councils of the church, has been for 31 years bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Pittsburgh, and his presence in a community considered an event in church circles. The public is invited to attend this service.

CONTRACT TO BE A BIG ONE

Bids to be Received Tonight for Paving Fallowfield Avenue

JOB WILL TOTAL $3,000

One of the important paving contracts of the year is to be awarded tonight by council. It will be for the paving of the portion of Fallowfield avenue from Ninth street north to the intersection of Fallowfield with Lincoln, a short distance below Tenth street.

Included in the paving contract will be the grading and curving. The entire contract will amount probably to something over $7,000.

With Fallowfield paved to its intersection with Lincoln, its entire length will have been bricked. Eventually Lincoln avenue will be paved its entire length with the state assistance. That will make three Charleroi streets paved their entire distance.

One hundred laughs at the Star Theatre tonight. 5c. 2121fp

LEGISLATURE TAKES UP AGAIN BILL FOR LICENSING HUNTERS

Stand Better Chance of Being Passed Now Than in Old Formerly — Senator Powell Seeks Delay of Suffrage Vote

Harrisburg, April 1.—After a long fight the hunters' license bill which had been killed in the house was reconsidered Monday night by a vote of 112 to 77, and it is expected that it will pass the house and the senate and be signed by the governor and be signed by the governor or the bill which provides that a hunter shall take out a license for $1 a year and that boys under 16 shall not hunt at all seems to have aroused a big vote of opposition.

Senators about Charleroi are in favor of it and some of them have worked hard for its passage.

Because of the absence of some of the senators favorable to woman suffrage Senator Powell will be waiting tomorrow if it gets that far. It is thought that the bill may pass the senate but it is marked for slaughter.

It is expected a some hard work will be done in disposing of the various measures before both houses finally vote in the senate today. The final vote in the senate may be fixed for additional reading.

This morning with high mass at 8 o'clock at St. Jerome's Catholic church the marriage ceremony uniting Thomas O'Toole, son of Michael O'Toole of Monessen and Miss Catherine Crow, daughter of Michael Crow of North Charleroi was performed by Rev. W. D. Fries. There were a few invited guests present and the attendants were L. Crow and Miss Margaret O'Toole.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Toole will live in Monessen where the groom is employed at a mill. Both are well-known young people. The groom is a cousin of the famous Marty O'Tool pitcher. He is himself an athlete of some consequence and figures prominently in local athletics.

Monessen may join in the campaign. Stirred up by the recent murder of a policeman there in the discharge of his duty the order, local citizens are taking a hand and will in their investigations stop at nothing short of every method within their term "bad rabbit." Already it is stated many of the local citizens about their town have become

WHAT SHOULD BE PUBLISHED?

Suppression of news is more of a wrong than the printing of a piece of news that might possibly better not have been written. By improper suppression a newspaper sells its soul and betrays its readers. Suppression of the news, to my mind, is the high treason of journalism."

So said James Keeley, editor and general manager of the Chicago Tribune, in an address before the students in the course of journalism at the University of Wisconsin in discussing newspaper work.

"No paper that permits its advertisers or the personal, social and financial friends of its editor to control or taint its news and editorial columns ever has become a big newspaper, a successful newspaper or a newspaper that is respected by the people. The man in the street instinctively senses this sort of treachery and he punishes," continued Mr. Keeley.

In the past there have been notorious examples of papers owned and controlled by politicians and the predatory powers. Some are dead, others have changed hands, and those that remain are leeches on the moneybags that gave them birth and furnished the sustenance to keep them alive.

"The sneering belief expressed by so many that advertisers have a mortgage on the editorial columns of all newspapers is not true. There are freemen and there are slaves in our business as there are in all lines of work. The newspaper field is not inhabited solely by 'saints,' neither has any other profession a monopoly of the pure in heart. The average of honesty, in the newspaper business, however, will compare favorably with that in any other trade or profession.

"The man who thinks he can betray his readers, the man who thinks he can let dollars supersede duty, the man who thinks he can let private interest dictate his policy—and doing these things secretly imagine that he can pose as a leader of public opinion, an exponent of right and honesty—is fooling himself, not the public. The public is canny, and its eye teeth are getting sharper every minute. The day of invisible government in the newspaper world as in the political world is vanishing.

"Honesty of purpose and the determination to carry that purpose into effect is the backbone of a newspaper that is operated and produced by finite minds. The decent newspaper wants to print the truth. A lie is a business boomerang. A newspaper's reputation for reliability is its stock in trade. Inaccuracy is the cardinal sin. Doubtless some papers are in need of absolution."

This is what every newspaper is up against every day in the year—the choice between duty and honor or of making personal enemies and losing business. It is to the credit of most newspapers that they stand for the right, and notwithstanding they hold the most potent weapon for good or for evil—publicity—in their hands, it is invariably wielded in the direction of the public good in spite of the personal sacrifices necessary in the performance of this duty.

THE SUPREME TEST.

"The evil men do lives after them; the good is oft interred with their bones." This sentient aphorism of Marc Antony in his oration over the bier of Julius Caesar, in Shakespeare's great tragedy, might fittingly be applied to the life of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, the great financier who by his genius and manipulation created millions of dollars out of nothing and controlled the finances of a nation.

As a man, personally, J. Pierpont Morgan was kind-hearted, honest, charitable, generous and brave. He gave largely to charity. His private character was unimpeachable. His domestic relations were never questioned. His word was as good as his bond, and his integrity in personal dealings was of the superlative type.

This, however, is the acknowledged standard of society and the business and commercial world of which Mr. Morgan was no exception. Men in all walks of life possess the same attributes—the humble wage earner, as well as the financial king. This is the good that is interred with the bones of men after they have passed through the dark portal.

The evil that lives after a man is his actions that affect the well being of society. Mr. Morgan's flagrant offense against the public is that he created untold millions of dollars of watered stocks in the various big deals he promoted and financed, every dollar of which has had to be reimbursed by the sweat and blood of labor. It was on these inflated values that wages of labor was based and on which the prices of commodities were fixed in order to pay dividends and which would ultimately give the fictitious stock a permanent value. This was done at the expense of the public—by the sweat and blood of the toilers. Mr. Morgan set the pattern in "blue sky" stock promotion on a gigantic scale and continues to increase.

ditions of the country, enhancing the cost of living abnormally and causing social discontent and distrust of our governmental institutions. This is the monument that J. Pierpont Morgan leaves to posterity—the evil that will live after him.

The supreme test of a life is, will the world be better for that life having lived within it? Will the good that Mr. Morgan has done during his life time over-balance the evil that will live after him? This is for the public to judge.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

In the Colorado legislature this week a vice segregation measure was laughed to defeat through the agency of a woman representative. Out in Colorado they regard women as people, and consequently give them the right to vote the same as men. Very frequently they elect women representatives to the legislature and senate. When the segregation bill came up in the house of the Colorado legislature, Mrs. Agnes Riddle, one of the women representatives, attacked it on the grounds that "fallen men should be segregated the same as fallen women."

Representative Biles declared his willingness to insert a section providing for her suggestion.

"But there would be no men left," objected Mrs. Riddle.

Whereupon the house burst into uproarious laughter, which lasted ten minutes. Upon recall on the bill Mrs. Riddle rose and warned:

"Let him among you who is without sin cast the first vote."

No one voted.

"Did you hear of the murder?" someone called over the telephone to the Mail office early this morning.

"No, indeed, where was it?" was the anxious answer, for here was a good story.

"Oh, I don't know. Somewhere in the United States."

Then it was recalled that this was April fool day.

"Send us down two bales of hay," said a small boy the other day in R. C. Mounter's feed store, to L. J. Mitchell, who is in charge.

"All right," said Mr. Mitchell, with pencil and pad in hand to note the order, "who is it for?"

"For the cow," replied the lad.

The most severe head or chest colds are usually relieved in one night. For all bronchial troubles, catarrh, sore throat, hoarseness and difficult breathing, this new treatment will be found wonderfully effective.

No one relizes the value of a treatment of this kind better than the skilled druggist, and in order that their customers may test its virtues for themselves the druggists of Charleroi have arranged to sell this new preparation, known as Vicks Croup and Pneumonia Salve, on 30 days' trial. With each purchase you will be given a slip showing the date of your purchase. If you are not delighted with the results, present this slip to your druggist any time within 30 days from the date of purchase and your money will be promptly refunded.

You can purchase a 25c, 50c or $1.00 jar on his trial offer from any of the druggists.

ROLLING THUNDER.

Why the Rumble at Times Is So Long Drawn Out.

The prolonged roll of thunder is readily explained by comparison with a volley fired along a line of troops.

Suppose troops to be drawn up on a line in such numbers as to extend for a mile and ordered by a signal that all could see to fire at once. One standing at the end of the line would hear the report of the musket nearest him instantly. He would hear the others successively. Thus a report 550 feet away would come to him in half a second, and be not heard the last report for five or six seconds after the gun had been fired. This would gradually increase in intensity.

If the listener stood exactly midway between the two ends of the line the reports from both ends would reach him at once, and the sound would be but half as long in reaching him as if he stood at one extremity. If the soldiers formed a circle there would be one sharp explosion.

Flashes of lightning may be considered as representing three lines of

Lee Francis Lybarger, scholar, scientist and orator, is to lecture tonight at the Methodist Episcopal church as one of the attractions on the Charleroi Citizens' Entertainment course. Coming as one of the best known platform men and thinkers of the country, he will be eagerly welcomed.

Of Mr. Lybarger it has been said that perhaps no man of his age is more familiar with the facts of Social Science, or has gone so profoundly into the causes for the concentration of wealth. His name is mentioned in the same connection as a lecturer with that of Bryan and La Follette.

NUTTING DRAWS TWO YEARS TO THE WORKHOUSE

David Nutting of Charleroi the young man who recently escaped from Morganza was given a rather severe sentence in the county court at Washington Monday. He was formerly in Morganza, was paroled and while out had trouble with his step-father, John Dassing, whom he shot and wounded. He was brought before court and being a paroled prisoner from Morganza a stet was entered and he was re-committed to Morganza. He escaped from there recently and after considerable effort on the part of the officers was finally picked up in the Charleroi section.

Judge McIlvaine sentenced him to pay the costs, a fine of $1 and undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for two years. This is about the time he would have to serve in Morganza provided he made his marks.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pain shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back if the kidneys are weak. You cannot reach the cause. Follow the example of this Charleroi citizen.

Mrs. W. L. Evans, 104 Lookout Ave., Charleroi, Pa., says: Several years ago one of my family complained of a dull pain in the small of the back and trouble with the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills were used and proved very beneficial. Some time later, Doan's Kidney Pill's were procured again at Piper Bros. Drug Store and did good work."

SUFFERED AWFUL PAIN

For Sixteen Years Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Moretown, Vermont—"I was bedridden with pains and irregularities sixteen years. I was thin, weak and nervous. What would lie down would seem as if I was going to fall down out of bed into some dark hole, and the windows curtains had faces that would peer out at me, and when I went out of doors it would seem as if something was going to happen. My blood was poor, my circulation was so bad I would be like a dead person at times. I had female weakness badly, my abdomen was sore and had awful pains.

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash and they certainly did wonders for me. My troubles disappeared and am able to work hard every day."—W. F. SAWYER, River View Farm, Moretown, Vermont.

Another Case.
Gifford, Iowa—"I was troubled female weakness, also with displacement. I had very severe and steady headaches, also pain in back and waist, very thin and tired all the time. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am cured of these troubles. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. INA MILLIGAN, Gifford, Iowa.

Owes Life to This Consumption Remedy

It is beyond human power to realize the benefits of Kakiatotae, the panacea for Consumption. It is a remedy for Consumption that does not claim that it will restore vigor to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified it saved their lives, that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should save life, fight sickness, free from appetite, and in very many cases, prolong life. Read what it accomplished in this case:

Catherine Ave. and Agost Place, Queen's Court, L. I.—"Gentlemen: In the year 1908 I became taken with a heavy cold and a severe cough and went to several doctors, including a specialist. Their medicines failed. I then went to the Castle Hill, the cough still kept up. I stayed there a year and then went on a farm in Jersey City, a very sick man. My brother, John, a physician, came to me very sickly, first I would not consent to use it, owing to the fact that I had taken so many medicines without being helped in any way, but finally I consented. It is now nearly two years since I first took it, I am now cured and am buried in the grave. I would have given my soul to Eskman's Alternative to me, but I never heard of it. I wish to thank you for the Godsend it is. Wherever I go I highly recommend Alternative, as I owe my life to it. (Signed) SWORN AFFIDAVIT, JOHN J. THOMPSON, Eskman's Alternative, Executive Secretary, Asthma, Hay Fever, Consumption, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Arthritis, Tonsillitis, Cough, Cold, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Does not contain opium or habit-forming drugs, telling of recoveries, and Laboratory, Philadelphia, evidence. ## UP THE RIVER

Glass Plant Still Idle.

Although efforts have been made by the Civic Club and citizens generally of Belle Vernon to adjust matters between the American Window Glass company and their striking employees, the plant is still idle. A committee of the workers held a conference with Manager T. C. McKinley, who received the men and had a heart to heart talk with them. He pointed out that the company had always treated the men fairly and the wages the company paid now before the strike were higher than three years ago. He said the company would not recognize the I. W. W. as an organization and that if enough workers volunteered as individuals to man one of the tanks he would take up the matter of an advance in pay with the company.

Want Real Fire Company.

Belle Vernon has come to a realization that it has no volunteer fire company and plans are being laid for a reorganization. The borough still maintains quarters for the company that was once the pride of the town, but interest has ceased and no one responds any more and the organization has fallen into inaction. At the last fire the North Belle Vernon company responded, but the members say they will not respond to any more calls of their larger neighbor if the citizens are too indifferent to maintain a company of their own.

Old Land Mark Demolished.

Almost every citizen about Belle Vernon will call to mind the old blacksmith shop which stood on the road from there to West Newton, known as the Beazell blacksmith shop. Many have been the stories related of it, but alas that is of the past. Tuesday afternoon during the wind storm the old structure gave up its fight and yielded to time.

Hive Will Install Officers.

Belle Vernon Hive No. 165, Ladies of the Maccabees will hold the installation of officers on next Friday evening. A good attendance of all members is desired. Plans are being made to attend the meeting at Donora on April 11, when Miss Vina M. West, Supreme Commander of Port Huron and Miss Nellie E. Lounsbury Great Commander for Pennsylvania of Warren will be present. The Belle Vernon hive expects to take some candidates along for the class initiation.

Church Makes Improvements.

The James Patterson Lumber company have the contract for and are at work this week on making a new entrance to St. Eusibius Church on South Main street at Fayette City, formerly the Y. M. C. A. building.

New Flags Now Fly.

Morning Star Council No. 29, Jr. O. U. A. M., through its members had new flags placed over the school house and their own hall last week at Fayette City, replacing the flags that were put up in the fall, they having become soiled and ragged.

Three Want Roscoe P. O.

Roscoe has three candidates for the post office position now held by James R. Underwood unless others appear in the near future. They are W. A. Furlong, John McElhaney and John Fitch.

It was said in Monessen this morning when the news of the Charleroi raid of Sunday morning became known that Monessen people had been frequent visitors here but whether or not at the McKean avenue place raided was not stated.

Too Strong. A young woman from the west who lately has been admitted to the infirmary of "the artistic set" of Washington recently made this query of an artist with reference to the work of a fellow painter:

"Why does Blank stand off and half shut his eyes when he looks at the pictures he is painting? When I visited his studio the other day he made me do it too."

"The explanation is simple enough," said the other. "Did you ever try to look at them with your eye wide open? Well, don't you can't stand it."

WHAT SHOULD BE PUBLISHED?

"Suppression of news is more of a wrong than the printing of a piece of news that might possibly better not have been written. By improper suppression a newspaper sells its soul and betrays its readers. Suppression of the news, to my mind, is the high treason of journalism."

So said James Keeley, editor and general manager of the Chicago Tribune, in an address before the students in the course of journalism at the University of Wisconsin in discussing newspaper work.

"No paper that permits its advertisers or the personal, social and financial friends of its editor to control or taint its news and editorial columns ever has become a big newspaper, a successful newspaper or a newspaper that is respected by the people. The man in the street insinctively senses this sort of treason, and he punishes," continued Mr.
Keeley.

In the past there have been notorious examples of papers owned and controlled by politicians and the predictory powers. Some are dead, othmen that Eecham's Pills

we have changed hands, and those that remain are leeches on the monarchs that gave them birth and furnished the substance to keep them alive.

"The sneering belief expressed by so many that advertisers have a mortgage on the editorial columns of all newspapers is not true. There are freemen and there are slaves in our business as there are in all lines of work. The newspaper field is not inhabited solely by saints, neither has any other profession a monopoly of the pure in heart. The average of honesty in the newspaper business, however, will compare favorably with that in any other trade or profession.

"The man who thinks he can betray his readers, the man who thinks he can let dollars supersede duty, the man who thinks he can let private interest dictate his policy—and doing these things secretly imagine that he can pose as a leader of public opinion, an exponent of right and honesty is fooling himself, not the public.

The public is canny, and its eye teeth are getting sharper every minute. The day of invisible government in the newspaper world as in the political world is vanishing.

GIVE LECTURE

HERE TONIGHT

Lee Francis Lybarger, scholar-scientist and orator, is to lecture tonight at the Methodist Episcopal church as one of the attractions on the Charleroi Citizens' Entertainment course. Coming as one of the best known platform men and thinkers of the country, he will be eagerly welcomed.

Of Mr. Lybarger it has been said that perhaps no man of his age is more familiar with the facts of Social Science, or has gone so profoundly into the causes for the concentration of wealth. His name is mentioned in the same connection as a lecturer with that of Bryan and La Follette.

NUTTING DRAWS TWO YEARS TO THE WORKHOUSE

David Nutting of Charleroi, the young man who recently escaped from Morganza was given a rather severe sentence in the county court at Washington Monday. He was formerly in Morganza, was paroled and while out had trouble with his step-father, John Dassing, whom he shot and wounded. He was brought before court and being a paroled prisoner from Morganza a stet was entered and he was recommitted to Morganza. He escaped from there recently and after considerable effort on the part of the officers was finally picked up in the Charleroi section.

Judge McIlvaine sentenced him to pay the costs, a fine of $1 and undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for two years. This is about the time he would have to serve in Morganza provided he made his marks.

Has a Right to Be Resentful.
"If you make any noise," threatened the holdup man, "I'll stuff this handkerchief in your mouth." The victim regarded it with a ghastly smile.
"Oh, that's such an old gag!" he protested.—Chicago Tribune.

"I don't mind having my trousers, my coat, my necktie, or even my collar splashed with mud by an automobile," says a South Broad street man. "But when the motorcar spatters my spectacles so that I can't see to dodge the next one I think I have a right to feel resentful."—Newark News.

ADDITIONAL OUTLOOK

AWFUL

For Sixteen Years, I To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Morristown, Vermont.—"I was bedded with pains and irregularities sixteen years ago. I was thin, nervous. What would do was to go down into some bushes and the window curtains had faces on them, and out doors it would seem as if something was going on. My blood was poor, my circulation was so bad I would be like a dead person at times. I had female weakness badly, my abdomen was sore and had awful pains.

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanaria Wash and they certainly did wonders for me. My troubles disappeared and I am able to work hard every day."—W. F. SAWYER, River View Farm, town, Vermont.

Another Case.

Gifford, Iowa.—"I was troubled with female weakness, also with diabetes. I had very severe and steady headache, also pain in back and was very thin and tired all the time. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am cured of these troubles. I cannot praise you medicine too highly."—Mrs. INA MUSKAGLE, Gifford, Iowa.

Paint Your Nursery Bed

"DON'T bother me, Betty. I'm so anxious to get this painting finished. Isn't smooth and white? Gee, it makes a change in the looks of these old, yellow, scratched bars!"

"It just gleams, doesn't it?"

"Mother said there was no anybody having an old, yellow, iron bed when a few coats of Lawrence Paint and an industrious little boy and girl make it into a new one."

Owes Life to This Consumption

It is beyond human power to eradicate. The makers of a certain remedy for Consumption claim that it will restore health to those who have suffered from it. They have not yet been entirely tested. It saved the life of a man who had consumption. Investigate and try it. It will save life. Read what it says in the case—Catherine Ave., Englewood, New Jersey.

"Gentlemen: In the fall of 1908 I was stricken with consumption and went to New York to seek a specialist. There I met Dr. Thompson, who told me that I had consumption. I then moved to Jersey City, New Jersey, where I lived for a year and then moved to Jersey City, New Jersey. My brother then recommended Thompson's Kidney Tablets to me.

to the fact that I had to take medicine which I did not like in any way, but finally I got well again. I now have a good appetite and am in full health again. I am now a member of the New Jersey State Society for the Prevention of Consumption.

UP THE RIVER

Glass Plant Still Idle.

Although efforts have been made by the Civic Club and citizens generally of Belle Vernon to adjust matters between the American Window Glass company and their striking employees, the plant is still idle.

A committee of the workers held a conference with Manager T. C. McKinley, who received the men and had a heart to heart talk with them. He pointed out that the company had always treated the men fairly and the wages the company paid now before the strike were higher than three years ago. He said the company would not recognize the I. W. W. as an organization and that if enough workers volunteered as individuals to man one of the tanks he would take up the matter of an advance in pay with the company.

Want Real Fire Company.

Belle Vernon has come to a realization that it has no volunteer fire company and plans are being laid for a reorganization. The borough still maintains quarters for the company that was once the pride of the town, but interest has ceased and no one responds any more and the organization has fallen into inaction disuse. At the last fire the North Belle Vernon company responded, but the members say they will not respond to any more calls of their larger neighbor if the citizens are too indifferent to maintain a company of their own.

Old Land Mark Demolished.

Almost every citizen about Belle Vernon will call to mind the old blacksmith shop which stood on the road from there to West Newton, known as the Beazell blacksmith shop. Many have been the stories related of it, but alas that is of the past. Tuesday afternoon during the wind storm the old structure gave up its fight and yielded to time.

Hive Will Install Officers.

Belle Vernon Hive No. 165, Ladies of the Maccabees will hold the installation of officers on next Friday evening. A good attendance of all members is desired. Plans are being made to attend the meeting at Donora on April 11, when Miss Vina M. West, Supreme Commander, of Port Huron and Miss Nellie E. Lounsbury Great Commander for Pennsylvania of Warren will be present. The Belle Vernon hive expects to take some candidates along for the class initiation.

Church Makes Improvements.

The James Patterson Lumber company have the contract for and are at work this week on making a new entrance to St. Eusbius Church on South Main street at Fayette City, formerly the Y. M. C. A. building. Little Marion the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kibler met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock by falling partly down the stairs. She struck her head against a post. Violent vomiting took place and a doctor was summoned.

A literary society was organized in the Library Hall Friday evening, March 29 by John Martin and Raymond Small. #### SUNDAY MORNING RAID MAY PRESAGE WARFARE

Whether any of the Monessonites have headed for Charleroi in an effort to locate here and operate is a question. The police will keep a careful lookout to prevent any of this class of undesirables from getting a foothold.

It was said in Monessen this morning when the news of the Charleroi raid of Sunday morning became known that Monessen people had been frequent visitors here but whether or not at the McLean avenue place raided was not stated.
